BEFORE: CARTER, C.J., WHIPPLE AND MCDONALD, JJ.

CARTER, C. J.

Plaintiff/Appellant, Keith Thompson, an inmate in the custody of the Louisiana Department of Public Safety and Corrections, seeks review of the district court judgment dismissing his suit with prejudice.¹ The commissioner's August 3, 2005 screening report, adopted by the district court as reasons for its judgment, adequately explains the decision. The administrative record indicates that the penalty imposed was a change of housing assignment, which does not constitute a violation of a substantial right of the accused. Cf. Sandin v. Conner, 515 U.S. 472, 486, 115 S.Ct. 2293, 2301, 132 L.Ed.2d 418 (1995). Thus, there exists no ground for reversal or modification of the administrative decision. LSA-R.S. 15:1177A(9).

The district court judgment is affirmed in accordance with Uniform Court of Appeal Rule 2-16.2.A(2), (5) and (6). Costs of this appeal are assessed to plaintiff/appellant, Keith Thompson.

AFFIRMED.

¹ Thompson captioned his July 10, 2006, appellant brief as an "Application for Writ of Review." All concerns raised therein have been addressed on appeal.
