

SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA

No. 2008-C-1685

CHARLES BROU

VERSUS

CARL MARTIN AND THOMAS SULLIVAN,
CLERK OF COURT FOR THE PARISH OF LIVINGSTON

ON WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE COURT OF APPEAL, FIRST CIRCUIT, PARISH OF LIVINGSTON

Not considered. Not timely filed. The court of appeal rendered its judgment on Thursday, July 24, 2008 at 9:31a.m. Because the forty-eight hour time interval under La. Rev. Stat. 18:1409G for filing this application ended on a legal holiday, relator's application was due by noon on the next legal day. La. Rev. Stat. 18:1413. Although the application was mailed on Friday, July 25, 2008, the application was not received by the clerk of court until Monday, July 28, 2008 at 1:41 p.m.; the application is therefore untimely. See Franklin v. Secretary of State, 06-2538 (La. 10/25/06), 939 So.2d 1266.
